VOL. III. NO. 224. CHICAGO, SUNDAY AND MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 19-20, 1897. PRICE, 5 CTS.

WHEELLOCK'S $400 PRESCRIPTION.

Eastern folks of knowledge about Metropolitan betting and the denizens of jockey club rings tell a good story at the expense of George Wheelock. September 6 Shasta Water, the California filly, was in the fifth race at Sheepshead. She won it. When betting was going on an unwashed citizen, full of words and alcohol, moved through the bunch of humanity before Wheelock's stamping ground—he was on the $50 live line—and asked for prices and general information about the field. When Wheelock is busy, Wheelock is testy. Losing patience under a fusillade of incoherent queries, he said to the bore: "Better take some Shasta Water. It'll do you good."

The filly is named after the product of a California mineral spring, said to be an excellent bracer. "All right," said the bore. "Give me $20 worth of Shasta Water. Don't weaken it, either. Give it to me straight. See!"

Wheelock took the $20, booked the bet at 20 to 1 and lost his man in the rush of business. He lost the bet too. The man came back when Shasta Water won. He was far more circumspect in moments of collection, took his $420, and made Wheelock more testy still by telling him that he was an excellent physician and that $400 was just what he needed to cure his case.

THE INSOLENT OF THE TURF.

There are a lot of petty insolences put upon the turf from day to day. One is on the line of the so-called advance publication of odds by newspaper people who do not know horses or their places and are surely not within the idea of 100 per cent and the "lagniappe" for handling the public money. Another flagrant piece of impudence is the "jolly" of turf organizations into the manufacture of races which take away the right of the owner to do the best he can with what he has. The so-called "Scully" races are jokes when one considers the general "free and easy" methods of Western American racing. There are always a lot of non-owning theorists ready to tell this and that owner what to do with his own. These theorists have a right to live and do the best they can—with their own. But when they direct others they make practical racing folks angry.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Patrol broke down so badly in his last race that he is hardly likely to go to the post again. Mr. Keene has sent Voter, Uriel and Blackcock to England where they will race in 1898.

CALIFORNIA JOCKEY CLUB STAKES.

Horsemen should keep their eyes on the closing of the twenty California Jockey Club stakes Monday next. The array is a noble one. Eight of the twenty events, each with a $40 nomination fee, are to be run during November and December at Oakland. Twelve more stakes, each from $1000 to $1500 in guaranteed value and free of entrance, close the same day, Monday, Sept. 20. Ten more events, among them many of the California classics, close November 10 and six more stakes will receive entries up to January, 1898. All nominations should be sent to Secretary R. B. Milroy, 204 Sutter street, San Francisco. Blanks for all the stakes can be secured at this office or will be sent on call to any address.

HAWTHORNE FOR SALE.

Hawthorne, who was an extra good race horse in the colors of both Pat Dunne and Barney Schreiber, is a grand individual and well bred on stout old-fashioned lines. He beat Morrello and a lot of good horses in his day, and is for sale. Hawthorne is a big noble looking chestnut horse, seven years old, by Major Richards—Lady Longfellow.

For a breeder in a moderate way he is a prize. Hawthorne is for sale. Address Barney Schreiber, DAILY RACING FORM, Chicago, Ill.

Winner—Ch. h. 6, by Rayon d'Or—Lillie R.
Start straggling. Won easily. Rubicon outclassed his field and is in grand condition. He also favors this track. Ketcham had great speed. He was running easily to the stretch. Well down it he looked a sure winner, but stopped at the end. He looks big and will do. Tripping was off poorly and made up ground throughout. Prim showed speed, then quit very badly. Lord Zeni was off poorly, had little speed and ran out on the stretch turn. Throw his race out.
Scratched—Kionkinnick, 122; Myrtle Harkness, 102; Talisman, 106.
Overweights—George H Ketcham, 1 pound.

Winner—B. h. 5, by Midlothian—Doe.
Start fair. Won driving. Deerslayer was best, but is not yet himself. He naturally outclasses this lot except Buckwa, who dislikes the deep track. King T ran his usual game race and was making up ground at the end. James Munroe took the long route and was closing fast at the end. Song and Dance lost much at the start, but improved his position throughout. Dorian was badly messed about on first turn. He looked to have a good chance on far turn, but quit. Ace ran an improved race under lighter weight.
Scratched—Rondo, 119; Partridge, 94; Good Times, 103; Agitator, 103; Hanlon, 103; Hap-hazard, 99.
Overweights—Buckwa, 1 pound; James Munroe, 1; Dorian, 1.

* † Coupled in betting.
Winner—B. c. by Hymyar—Alta Blue.
Start straggling. Won driving. High Jinks was speedy; got away running and finished gamely. Bliss Rucker was best at the weights and finished like a lion. He was shut off on the stretch turn. Dacian was poorly handled and messed about. He can do better. Saratoga beat the barrier and ran a fine race. Probably this race was short. Gala Day had no chance at the start; got an easy race. Danforth ran well for him. His forte is mud. Salazar showed a fine burst of speed and was pulled up at end. He was short. Napamax had no chance with his boy. He looks well. Babieca and Isabey were practically left and showed no speed after.
Scratched—Fonsavannah, 102; Hairpin, 100.
Overweights—Dacian, 5 pounds; Babieca, 3; Isabey, 2 1/4.

Scratched—Tillo, 111.

Winner—Ch. c. by Falsetto—Queencraft.

Start good. Won easily. Yankee Sam was best. Miriam looked a winner on the stretch turn but stopped in the last furlong. She is promising. La Maroma ran well and finished strong and true. Homelike, off in the rear, lost on the turn and came fast on the end. Domestic ran unusually well for her. Merlin closed at the end. Wasteful is a bad horse. There was no excuse for him today. Long Ace was cut off at the start.

Scratched—Mills, 115; Moraine, 112.

Winner—B. c, by Hindoo—Pure Rye.
Post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving hard. Tom Calvert ran a good race. He is a big handsome fellow and can beat better ones. Flo Honeydew was evidently short. She was raced hard, though, in the face of a strong wind down the back stretch. She is a very promising filly. Bob Garnet ran a much improved race. He is a bad horse. Cutter will hardly do. He got away well and nothing interfered with him. Chinkapin, off none too well, made up considerable ground.

Scratched—Happy Ten, 110; Bambino, 100; Felix Young, 113; Star and Crescent, 110.

Winner—Blk h, 5, by Siddartha—Medicine.
Post 4 minutes. Start good. Won in a long hard drive of four. Black Jack ran a good race. Magnusson rode him to perfection. He was driving Black Jack at the three furlong pole. Elsie Ferguson ran so close to him through the stretch that he could not use his right hand. He cleverly changed his whip and used his left hand to good effect. Red was pocketed down the back stretch and never got through until the natural spread on the end. Teeta May is ready. She can win soon. Warren Point showed a lot of speed. He went all to pieces, though, when the pinch came. Ursula ran a bad race.

Time, 25 1/2, 50 1/2, 1:03, 1:16, 1:42, 1:47.

Winner—B. c, 3, by Free Knight—Fantress.
Post 8 minutes. Start good. The first three were driving hard. Burns simply outrode Dean. Boys reversed. Colonel Gay would certainly have won. Milwaukee ran a game race. He was under a drive at the half mile ground. Burns took a long chance and was extremely lucky to get through on the rails at the head of the stretch. Colonel Gay had the foot of the party but was pumped out racing in the teeth of the wind. Lady Dixon is an honest filly. She was pocketed all the way and did all her running the last furlong. With clear sailing she would have been a keen contender. Mandolina acted sour at the post and seemed to sulk all the way. J H C was short. He was galloping under a strong pull the first part. Everett eased him up on the end. He warmed up a trifle sore and is evidently not fit. Throw the race out.

Time, 24 1/2, 49 1/2, 1:01 1/2, 1:13 1/2.

Winner—B. g, 5, by Duke of Montrose—Memorial.
Post 13 minutes. Start good. Won cleverly; second driving; third eased up a trifle on the end. Harry Duke was the best and showed it. He set his own pace in the face of the strong wind and had the others dizzy at the head of the stretch. He is a phenomenal sprinter. Imp likes weight off and ran back to her form. Barrett broke from behind with The Swain full on his stride. The good send-off enabled him to be as close up as he was. Forbush ran a game race. He was badly interfered with and dropped out of it on the back stretch. He finished strong on his own courage. Kitley lost his hold on the colt's head and he swerved. Lady Callahan used what speed she had early. Gaston was far from fit. Watch him. He is a good colt.
Scratched—Coronatus, 90.

Time, 24, 49, 1:01 1/2.

Winner—B. f, by Salvator—Columbine.
Post 30 seconds. Start good. All the first four were driving. Our Gertie was undoubtedly the best. She was well handled. Caywood waited with her until Fair Deceiver hung herself up. She is not a game filly and hates the whip. Caywood did not use it on her but rode powerfully with his hands and feet. Fair Deceiver was lucky to be second. With clear sailing Loving Cup would have beaten her. Cup was sharply cut off and obliged to pull up shortly after the start. Barrett rode a good race and made his run in time and in the stretch. The filly finished strong. Nannie Davis ran a good race. Watch her. She is a good filly. Elsie Bramble could not handle the weight. Crystalline was always outrun. She is not a weight carrier.
Scratched—Empress Josephine, 115; Flora Louise, 120; Hazeldean, 109; Alleviate, 100; Belle of Memphis, 120.

Winner—Br. c, 3, by Jim Gore—Bagpipes.
Off first break to a perfect start. Won with something to spare; second and third driving hard. Moncreith's sudden reversal was shocking. He was always well in hand and made Dr. Sheppard look like a selling plater. He is perhaps the best three-year-old at the track. But he has notions. Dr. Sheppard seemed to be loading down the back stretch, but when called upon, could not respond. Greyhurst ran under a stout pull for three-quarters and then collapsed. Evidently his recent hard race in the mud dulled the colt.
Scratched—The Swain, 113.

Winner—Ch. g, 5, by Audrain—Jessie Hatcher.
Post 30 seconds. Start good. Won hand ridden; second, third and fourth driving. Farley had all his speed and raced his field into the ground the first half. He is a good horse now. Forseen ran her usual honest race. She cannot carry weight. Arlington was interfered with and ran a clever race. Simmons took the long route. Lew Hopper, slow to begin, finished like a gladiator. Lone Princess had the slows. Don Fulano showed a flash of speed. Farley was run up $100 over his entered price.
Scratched—Helen Wren, 105; Floreanna, 105.
